

(Day 8) Excited to share the incredible experience from our recent study visit as part of the Forest and Landscape Management course at the International Summer School Prizren

In this edition, we have students from outside Kosovo, including 45 different countries of the world.