

The Center for Excellence in Teaching organized the first training for the academic staff of the University

